Orange County Branch

Resolution of Support of the Extension of the Foothill South, 241 Freeway

Resolution No. 2007-1

RESOLUTION OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS
OF THE ORANGE COUNTY BRANCH
OF THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CIVIL ENGINEERS
IN SUPPORT OF THE EXTENSION
OF THE FOOTHILL SOUTH, 241 FREEWAY

WHEREAS, the Orange County Branch of the American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE) represents over 2,200 civil engineers in the private and public sectors along with academia, covering numerous civil engineering disciplines; and

WHEREAS, the Orange County traffic conditions have been worsening, and the overall impact on the environment are increasing as a result of traffic backups on our freeways; and

WHEREAS, the Orange County Branch of the American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE) following review of the proposed extension of the Foothill South, 241 Freeway; which is an important segment of the total transportation system in Orange County; and

WHEREAS, the Orange County Branch of the American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE) believes that the proposed improvements will improve the overall environmental conditions, such as traffic, air quality and stormwater, and early completion of the extension will help relieve the current congestion on the I-5 freeway in Orange County,

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Directors of the Orange County Branch of the American Society of Civil Engineers at its regularly scheduled meeting of June 25, 2007, does hereby support the extension of the Foothill South, 241 Freeway,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the members of ASCE and its Orange County Branch will be glad to participate in activities that will advance this project.

Yazdan Emrani, P.E., President
ASCE Orange County Branch

Ziad Mazboudi, Chair, Legislative Committee
